

ARRIBLAD – Kersteditie

Tadaaa!!! Daar issie weer! Na heel wat geschuif binnen de commissie, is hier dan met trots het nieuwe Arriblad. Zoals in het laatste Arriblad al te lezen was, stond de commissie op losse schroeven: Een burger die nu toch echt naar Jugglers is gegaan en afstuderende, drukke studenten die het heel leuk vonden om deel te mogen uitmaken van het Arriblad, maar waarvoor het toch echt teveel werd. En dan natuurlijk nog ik - de (halve) burger - die dan toch nog bij de Arribladcommissie zit, om alle opgedane ervaring van vorig jaar door te geven aan de nieuwe samenstelling van de commissie. De commissie heeft jonger bloed gekregen met nieuwe denkwijzen en ideeën! Wouter gaat de zware taak op zich nemen om te voorkomen dat er fouten in het Arriblad staan. Jennifer gaat wat moois van alle stukjes maken. Iris is er voor de communicatie en notulen. Gijs houdt het geld in de gaten en Stephanie manoeuvreert overal tussendoor en doet hier en daar haar ding. Zelf ben ik voorzitter en dat betekent delegeren. ☺ Verder gaan we proberen om veel in het Engels te doen om ook de Engelstalige Arribanen te voorzien van een clubblad. Mijn poging is daarbij een beetje mislukt.

Arriblad Committee:

Wouter Versluijs - Mister spelling

Jennifer Wyduba - Eindredactie

Iris Piera - Secretaris

Gijs Luijten - Penningmeester

Stephanie Vreriks - Algemeen lid

Anne-Jolijn van Ark - Voorzitter

Sorry for not having this in Enlisch!

Anne-Jolijn van Ark.

Dear Arribanen,

I want to start with welcoming everybody to Arriba: the new members, the older ones and also the eldest, the really really old members of Arriba (I'm not going to call names). We've managed again this year to fill four men's teams and one ladies team and yet we still hope/try to finally get that second ladies team. By now we have been busy for three months in the season and I'm happy to see that all the teams are doing great; some teams better than other teams, but in the end it is all about the fun of the game (although a win by the h1 would be welcome, but that's a different story). I'm truly happy to see that everybody is enthusiastic to play, but also to help with other activities of Arriba, because, for the people who don't know, Arriba is more than basketball alone: it is a phenomenon. We organize parties, tournaments and lots of other stuff besides basketball.

We, as the board, try as hard as we can to bring these activities to reality and we do that with all the love in the world. For succeeding, however, we need help from members, lots of members, who, for example, want to organize the tournaments like the Breedtoernooi and the Flaba, but also people who want to help standing behind the bar, which brings the club extra money (this is important!). Besides these, there are many other examples. We are thankful for all the help we get this far and I don't want to look ungrateful, but all this help is still not enough. If we want to make tournaments like the Breedtoernooi a success, like last year, we need more people to help. The tournament commission counts three members right now and if we don't get two extra, there will be no Breedtoernooi. This is a big waste, because this tournament is the biggest happening of the year for Arriba and no-one wants to miss this. So I ask everybody to help Arriba and especially the tournament commission and make the big activities happen ones again.

Further I wish everybody good luck and a lot of fun for the rest of the season and with all your help it will be a big success yet again.

With kind regards, Davey de Bruin

Do's and Don'ts by Stephanie

In this section I will give my opinion on all sorts of items. In this first edition I have a really big DON'T!

You know when you were younger and you thought it would be cool to wear army clothes, so you would be different and still look tough? Well, I personally think army clothes are awesome, but only when you wear them the right way and most of the times only when you are a girl!

I spotted Beer Sijpesteijn from Heren 1 in some sort of army shirt, but in the wrong colors! On top of this fashion mistake he is wearing white basketball shoes, which makes him look younger. I just don't get this. What is he trying to accomplish here? Is it a statement? Is it bad taste? Or was he short on time and had to put on something? I am confused! Beer, take my word for it, if you want to have a girl that will dress up like Princess Leia, please stop trying to dress up like a youth version of Rambo!

Tomaten met garnalen cocktail

(Amuse)

Ingrediënten

- 12 cherrytomaatjes
- 2 eetlepels mayonaise
- 1 theelepel sherry
- 1 mespunt dragon
- 2 eetlepels verse peterselie (bakje a 30 gr) fijngesneden
- 100 gr garnalen

Bereiding

Stap 1: Snijd van de cherrytomaatjes het kapje en haal er met een theelepel de vulling uit. Zet de tomaatjes koel weg.

Stap 2: Roer de mayonaise, sherry, dragon en peterselie door elkaar en breng het geheel op smaak met zout en (versgemalen) peper. Roer de garnalen er voorzichtig doorheen.

Stap 3: Schep het garnalenmengsel in de tomaatjes en bestrooi met wat extra peterselie.

Super chique, lekker en makkelijk te maken. Vorig jaar met kerst gemaakt, en iedereen had liever gehad dat we het met standaardtomaten hadden gemaakt omdat het zo naar meer smaakte.

Arribasjemenou?!

Harriet: “Ik wil graag voor €17,50 mijn onderrug laten harsen”

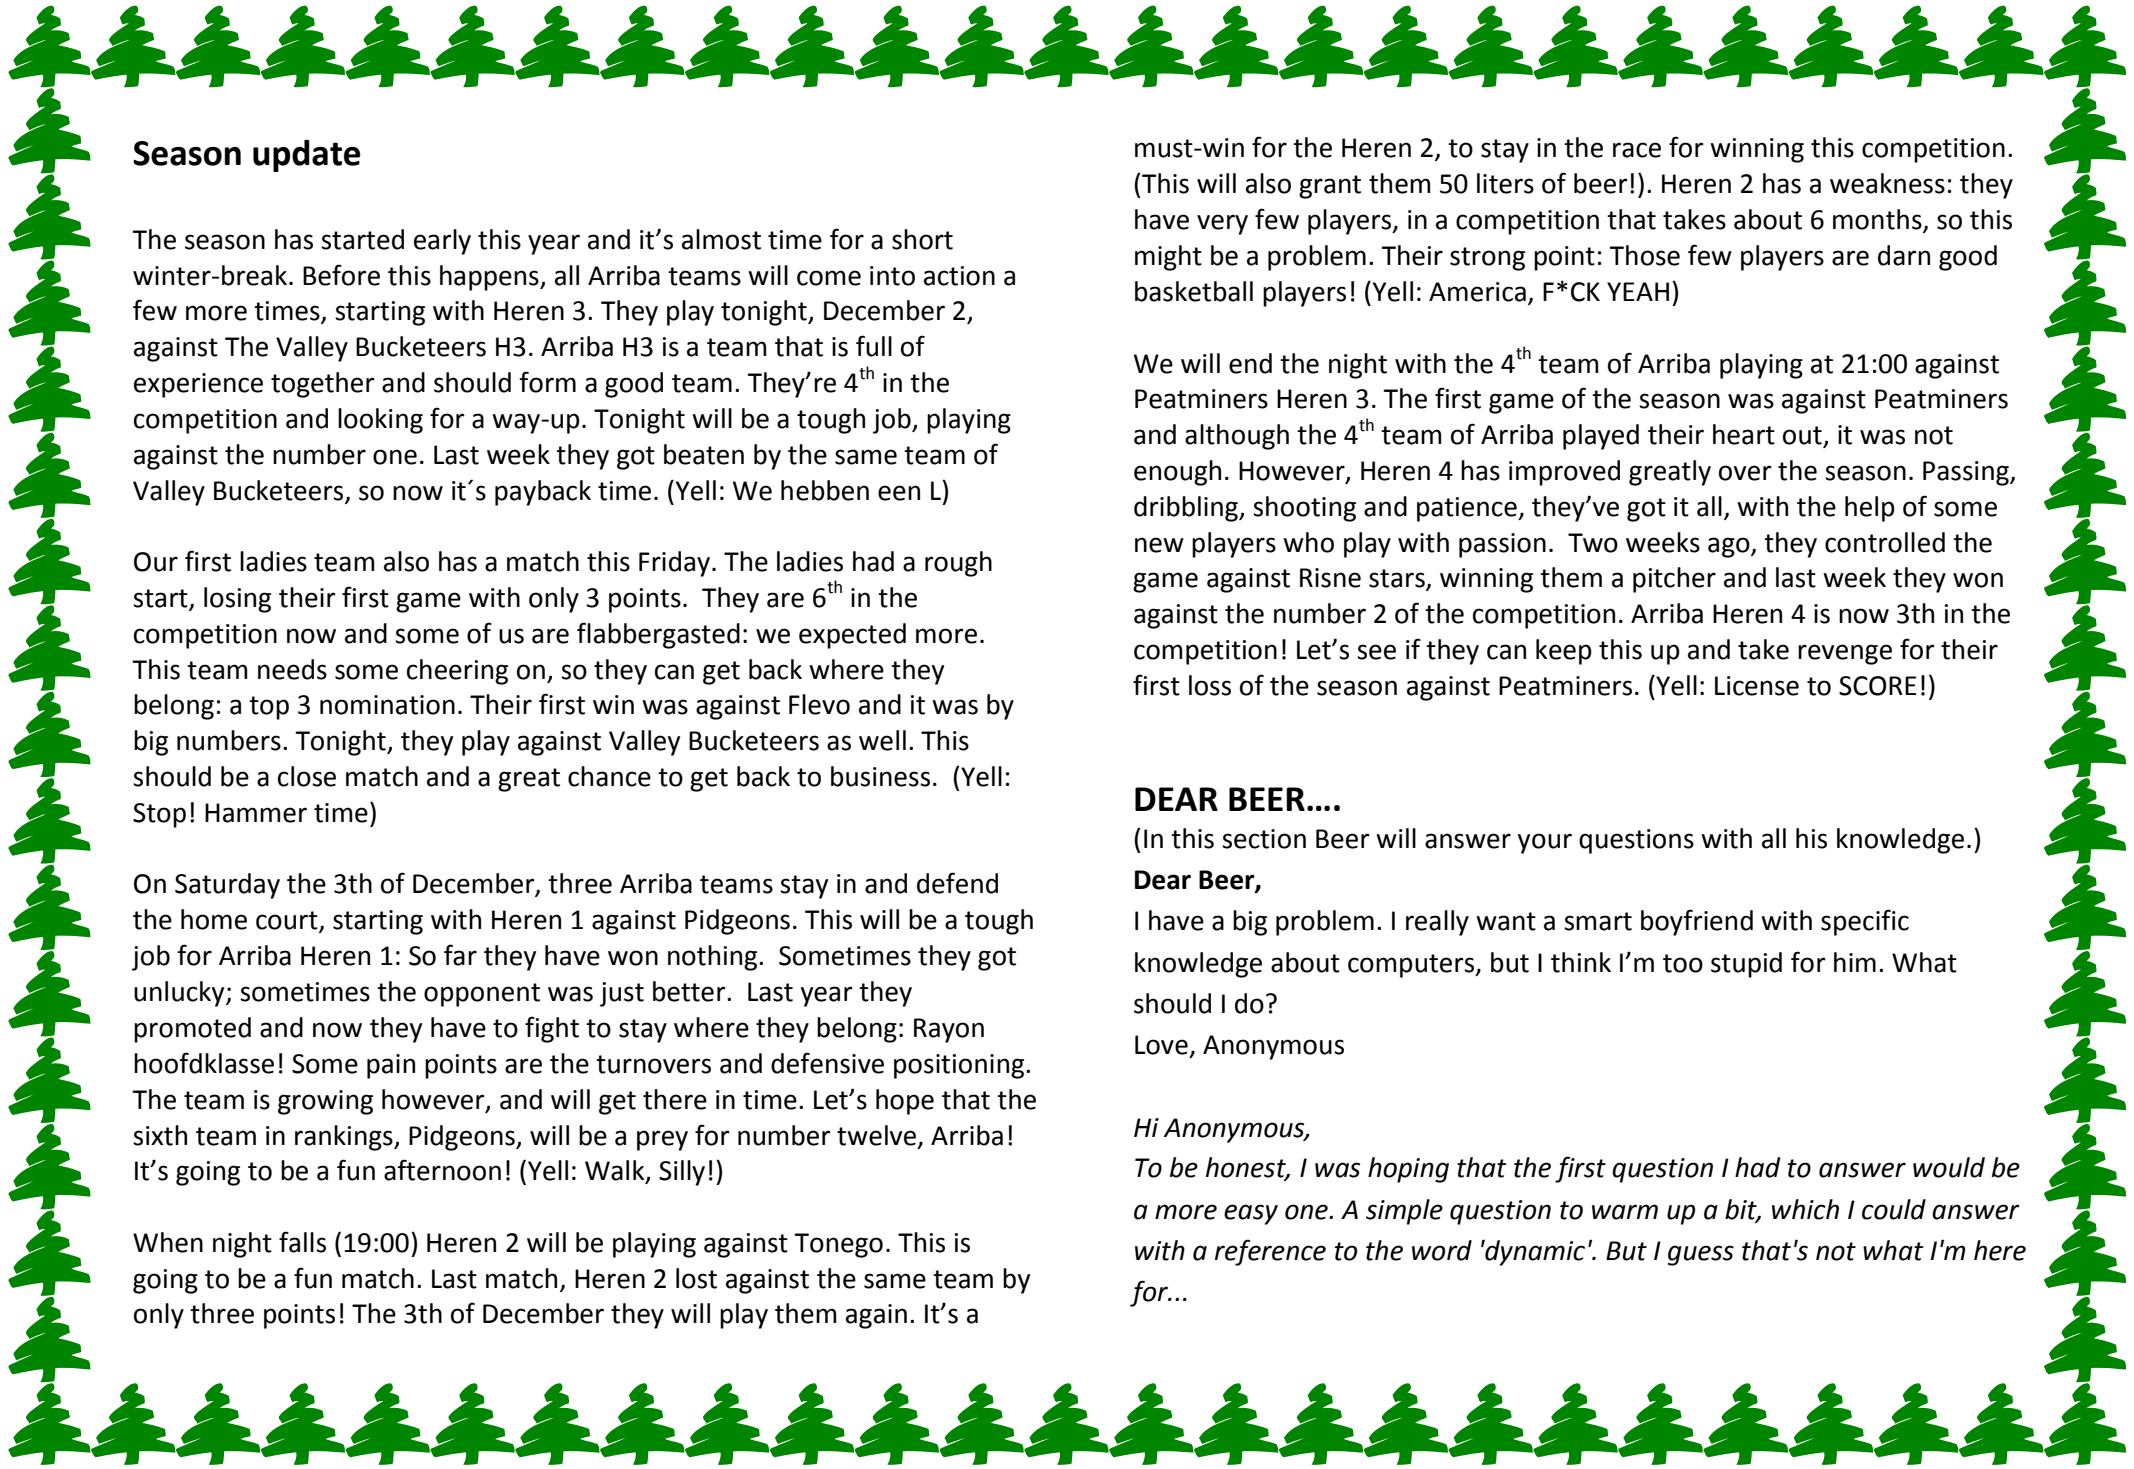

Beer tegen stephanie: “Doe je mond open en stop hem erin!”

Roland in de auto: “Hans, rij iets wat rustiger, de paal tussen mijn benen begint te bewegen”

Beware during the warming-up!

Danger sits in a small corner, that's what became clear during the match of the ladies 1, three weeks ago. While the ladies were getting hot by practicing their weave, a ball came by. Eager as they are, Iris as well as Harriët tried to catch it. This resulted in a collision which was lost by Iris' fingers. During the match it did not look like it was more than a little pain. However after their team night, everybody saw the fingers getting purple. When it became clear this was not just because of an alcoholized view, they went to the hospital and it appeared the finger was broken. With a few weeks in plaster left, the moral of the story is clear: before the silly walks, when getting warm, watch out for your fingers and your arm!

Season update

The season has started early this year and it's almost time for a short winter-break. Before this happens, all Arriba teams will come into action a few more times, starting with Heren 3. They play tonight, December 2, against The Valley Bucketees H3. Arriba H3 is a team that is full of experience together and should form a good team. They're 4th in the competition and looking for a way-up. Tonight will be a tough job, playing against the number one. Last week they got beaten by the same team of Valley Bucketees, so now it's payback time. (Yell: We hebben een L)

Our first ladies team also has a match this Friday. The ladies had a rough start, losing their first game with only 3 points. They are 6th in the competition now and some of us are flabbergasted: we expected more. This team needs some cheering on, so they can get back where they belong: a top 3 nomination. Their first win was against Flevo and it was by big numbers. Tonight, they play against Valley Bucketees as well. This should be a close match and a great chance to get back to business. (Yell: Stop! Hammer time)

On Saturday the 3th of December, three Arriba teams stay in and defend the home court, starting with Heren 1 against Pidgeons. This will be a tough job for Arriba Heren 1: So far they have won nothing. Sometimes they got unlucky; sometimes the opponent was just better. Last year they promoted and now they have to fight to stay where they belong: Rayon hoofdklasse! Some pain points are the turnovers and defensive positioning. The team is growing however, and will get there in time. Let's hope that the sixth team in rankings, Pidgeons, will be a prey for number twelve, Arriba! It's going to be a fun afternoon! (Yell: Walk, Silly!)

When night falls (19:00) Heren 2 will be playing against Tonego. This is going to be a fun match. Last match, Heren 2 lost against the same team by only three points! The 3th of December they will play them again. It's a must-win for the Heren 2, to stay in the race for winning this competition. (This will also grant them 50 liters of beer!). Heren 2 has a weakness: they have very few players, in a competition that takes about 6 months, so this might be a problem. Their strong point: Those few players are darn good basketball players! (Yell: America, F*CK YEAH)

We will end the night with the 4th team of Arriba playing at 21:00 against Peatminers Heren 3. The first game of the season was against Peatminers and although the 4th team of Arriba played their heart out, it was not enough. However, Heren 4 has improved greatly over the season. Passing, dribbling, shooting and patience, they've got it all, with the help of some new players who play with passion. Two weeks ago, they controlled the game against Risne stars, winning them a pitcher and last week they won against the number 2 of the competition. Arriba Heren 4 is now 3th in the competition! Let's see if they can keep this up and take revenge for their first loss of the season against Peatminers. (Yell: License to SCORE!)

DEAR BEER....

(In this section Beer will answer your questions with all his knowledge.)

Dear Beer,

I have a big problem. I really want a smart boyfriend with specific knowledge about computers, but I think I'm too stupid for him. What should I do?

Love, Anonymous

Hi Anonymous,

To be honest, I was hoping that the first question I had to answer would be a more easy one. A simple question to warm up a bit, which I could answer with a reference to the word 'dynamic'. But I guess that's not what I'm here for...

Back to your question, I think I know something that might help you. You might remember the premiere of the third season of Friends, which aired on September 19, 1996. In the end of this episode, Rachel dresses like Princess Leia (captured by Jabba the Hut) does in Return of the Jedi, the sixth episode of Star Wars. It is well known that people with 'specific knowledge about computers' have a high chance to be a Star Wars fan, so you might want to do just like Rachel did and dress like Princess Leia and try to seduce someone. Good luck!

Dear Beer,

Where is the famous guy who drums for Arriba on the tribune?
Greetings,
Klaas van der Brug

Hello Klaas,

Thanks for your question! I am afraid I have to disappoint you, I do not exactly know where 'Den Trommelaar' has gone. Actually, I am just a curious as you are and wish his return soon. Right now I can only share some rumors I heard about him being spotted in Friesland (which is not too far from Groningen, which is in Groningen). Would you let me know if you hear anything about him?

Dear Beer,

I am confused. What is normal in Holland when someone gets his bachelor after nine years of study? Is it a handshake? Is it a big hug? Is it a gift? Please tell me because I'm not sure.
Big kiss from anonymous

Dear Anonymous,

Your second question already! You must be a pretty troubled person. Nothing is normal anymore after someone gets his (or her of course) bachelor after nine years of study. There is, however, a habit between people who received their bachelor after nine years and this is a handshake. Unfortunately, not much is known about this handshake, because it is a secret handshake. This is all I know about this subject, but maybe there are people out there specialized in secret handshakes who might have a more definite answer.

Dear Beer,

Jan and Kees were in a boat. The boat sank. They fell in the water. Jan's hair was wet. Kees' s hair was not. How is this possible?

Beats me, there are so many unknowns in the given situation! Did Kees fall into an alternate reality where water isn't wet? Did Kees treat his hair with a water-repellent (did you know that this is a common practice for secret-handshake-experts)? Is there no boat? Is Kees a coach? Or are Jan and Kees hunters? Was there a fluctuation in the water-air-continuum? ... ? ... ?

Jennifer's Spelletjeshoed!

Try to connect the letters/numbers in a logical order.

TIP: every "circle" starts at the bottom left! There are 5 circles and 4 of them make a word.

Have you met....

Glenn Reijnders, he is the new point guard in Arriba H4. He lives in Wierden, played basketball since he was seven and works at "nationaal muziekkwartier van Enschede". Glenn studies IO (Indistrueel ontwerpen). In his first year with Arriba, he's showing his speed and ability to control the ball! 18 years young and fanatic as hell, this is probably why he got chosen team captain.

Glenn is not the tallest person of the world (1,70 to be precisely), but he would like to say it is not necessary for basketball and he makes up for it with heart, smartness and fast moves. However I personally believe sometimes he's too quick for his own shadow and he loses overview of the court, but nobody's perfect!

So to start the interview, with a easy question: KFC, McDonalds or Burgerking?

McDonalds

And what is your favorite order there?

I really liked the big tasty, but because of some crazy reason they don't have it anymore ☹

Coffee or thee?

Thee

Bier, cola or wine?

BIER

I agree with you there, they should bring the big tasty back! So what hobbies do you have besides basketball?

I played hockey for some time, I actually like every team sport, I like to see Ice-hockey, saw a few games in Czech. Playing the guitar are also some of my favorite things, just like listing to music other. Beside that, I like going out and having a drink.

You played hockey and like teamsports, are there any sports you dislike?

"Korfbal" they just take all the fun out of BASKetball.

I've heard you played since you were seven, where did you play?

I played in Wierden (SVZW), A nice warm club. The team stayed together for a long time and we were fanatic especially in the third half, fifth quarter. However, when we play them, there enemies. Last time we won on their court. Let's do the same at home!

And how do you like Arriba?

I like it a lot, the students have it good here and they have done a nice job with Arriba! Our team is playing better every match and we have a fun team. So I'll end with our team yell: "License to score!!!"

So this was my little chat with Glenn, if you want to know more about him, heren 4 or anything else just call Glenn at 0909-1800.
