Working duties:

Working duties (Dutch: "werkacties") are a kind of labour that can be done by every member to get a discount on your contribution. The amount of working hours and the fee will be determined every year during a general members assembly. Last year the criteria were either doing commission work, being a coach/trainer or doing 6 barshifts. The discount was €20 for recreational players and €40 for league players. These criteria are also determined during the general members assembly. The regulations of Arriba (Dutch: "Huishoudelijk Reglement") contain several rules about the working duties and can be found on the website of Arriba. Unfortunately the regulations are in Dutch.
