Word from board

Dear Arribans,

Dear handsome Arribans,

Tonight is the championship game of the Gents 1 against the Jugglers, a classic Enschede derby. After 9 years of coaching Arriba, Bas will finally get his hands on the 1st place in the competition. Hereby we want to congratulate Bas! Afterwards, join the escalationtrain to Wasteland to ruin your Sunday! Shout out to Harambee for joining the championship's game and contribute to the overall atmosphere.

I hope you all enjoyed the Sportgala as much as I did. The next event we can look forward to is the 45th Batavierenrace. The biggest student relayrace in the world! We are still searching Arribans to run some stages, so don't be hesitant to join! If you hate to run, I don't blame you, you can also help us by doing a barshift that weekend. Sign-up at Pim or somebody from the board. Furthermore, enjoy the 2nd edition of the Arriblad!

Word from Arriblad

Dear Arribans,

Of course we know you're all watching the exciting championship match of Arriba Gents 1. We agree that your focus should be on the sport, but at one point during the match your favorite player might end up on the bench (for some a bit longer than the other) and you have a moment to enjoy the 2nd edition of the Arriblad. Written to keep you posted on past, current and upcoming events, wrapped in our signature taste of humor. This edition we have lots of Q&A letters, some puzzles and a love story.

Some things that happened: Arriba has a new logo. An idea pushed by last year's board and executed by our current board. At the BAV it was voted to rejuvenate the Arriba brand with the new logo. The logo is based on the 'Caracara', a Central-American crested Falcon.

4 March we had the sports Gala. Arriba was well represented. A nice example was how the large void Arriba left on the dance during our group photo. Unfortunately the Arriblad has not yet received the photos of the gala, so we'll save some for the next edition.

Some things happening: Arriba Gents 1 championship match against Jugglers. Like you didn't know this yet, Sounds like a great reason to party: Klaas gaat gek: "en jullie ook". I heard rumors about Karaoke.

Some things about to happen: The Bata. The Batavieren race as a relay race from Nijmegen to Enschede. Followed by the largest student party of the year. Arriba runs every year, there will be an Arriban BBQ then the party is on. There might even be a new edition of the Arriblad, something to look forward to of course.

For now: enjoy the Arriblad, don't forget to enjoy the match and let's join the Gents 1 in celebration afterwards.

Kind regards,
The Arriblad editors

Team Standings

The season is almost over and Gents 1 have graciously positioned themselves with a neat goal differential on the first place. The ladies team are still in the race for the 2nd place and the Gents 2 have placed themselves 3 places higher since last Arriblad edition. The Gents 3 are still able to end up in the top 3 of the competition!

Team page: Gents 3

Last season this team was at the bottom half of the competition. But now, with the help of Stijn 'Everything Is Proportional' Eikenaar and his Edgar Davids' glasses, the tables have turned. His length combined with the speed of Andrea 'There Is No Pizza' Bocelli resulted in a shared third place in the league. But before we look further to the players, we must first look to the backbone of the team: the trainers and coaches. The physical aspects have been taken care of by Klaas 'Private' van Dijk who has taken the collective team from 3 to 10+ army drills. The team is always looking forward to these drills, as Klaas proudly smiles at the sidelines. Above Klaas (+316-22870114) there is Bob 'Commander In Chief (Dep. Borrels)' Hengeveld whose tactical training served us greatly during the competition. Since half of Gents 3 don't understand the Overload (which results in confusion and chaos) Bob wisely opted for the 4-out offensive against a zone later in the season. Now that's smart thinking! With Stijn in the Bucket every pass inside now is practically an alley-oop.

Now back to the team, because trainers and coaches will only get you so far. As most of you know the big difference this year is that we actually have centers, essential in our competition. Next to the previously mentioned Stijn we also have two more big guys: Jeronimol 'I'm Always Right' Mol and Pim 'I rather drink beer with my board and send snapchats of it, than coming to training' Weijerink. These two however don't fully understand the concepts of not making fouls when told. We have learned the hard way not to shout this when Pim is in a 1v1 situation, because this always results in a jumping defensive hammer-stroke to the opponents head (and an obvious foul). Fortunately they make up for this in other aspects in or out of the game (you can ask them for specifics, it's complicated).

Our other new foreign recruits include Dejordeje 'Wrong Time, Wrong Place' Vaazylyefik and Carlos 'Walls Won't Stop Me' Garcias whose flavor give an edge to our gameplay. Djordje skillfully makes fouls on fast break situations and then refuses to understand the Dutch referee, but makes up for this for stylish behind the back passes and three point shots whose arc can't be explained mathematically (at least we can't). Carlos, our newest addition, is making more ankle breakers than the rest of the team and is a welcome addition since our guards Andrea and Menno 'Not The Fat One' Roelofs are continuously out of commission. You can see that the road to success is always hard and some companions are no longer with use (R.I.P. in pieces): Roger 'Get Spanish' Clarasó Esteve, whos three back to back threes gave us an unbelievable victory in Deventer, Rudiger 'The Roemaster' Rudy Kokou Atchon, whos still jumping high in Germany, and Kaspar 'Who?' Pedak, who? We also recruited some rookies for this year who were eager to run their lungs into higher capacity. Jordi 'They Only Wanted Me In Hengelo' Hendrix always takes the lead in army drills and keeps the pace high, what everyone in the team finds delightful. Bob 'Fake It Till You Make It' van Lent, our second rookie, only bring his girlfriend to matches which are guaranteed wins, but we understand: a win on the court is a win at home (*winkyface*).

-- INTERMEZZO --

Did you know that Djordje can arrange discounts at steam? Apparently this is legal, although this still has to be confirmed.

-- END INTERMEZZO --

Team-didn't-fit-on-page: Gents 3

Last Friday was the debut from a player from down under (I mean Eindhoven). Felix 'Grab Him By The Balls' Dols played an important part in the victory in his first game in blue and yellow and he will continue to fulfill his duties until the end of the season.

Veteran of the Gents 3 Charles 'Friday Night Magic' Gorter, wants to bring the Gents 3 to the next level (at all costs). However, while he is pushing the team, he maybe has to start by running the suicides in time. Although Charles is the veteran of the Gents 3, there is another father figure within the team. Not only the players can find comfort at teamcaptain Robert 'Sugardaddy' van Dinteren, but mostly the ladies are chasing this sweet. Although Robert has lots of choice, he has difficulty in finding the perfect sugarlady. Unlike Mattijs 'Nothing Is Proportional' Mientki, who has found the perfect little arriba girl. Since basketball is a backbreaking sport, the current Gents 3 has to be replaced soon. Herson 'Superdaddy' El Phantasma has found the solution and is already breeding a new kind of super basketball player. In short, the Gents 3 has a prosperous future.

If you're reading this, congrats. Yesterday we beat Stars '84 again. You should congratulate us as well.

Criple crew:

We want to introduce Arribans with a new team: the Crippled Crew! The worst players of Arriba are selected and qualified to join the team. Congratulations on behalf of the Arriblad committee! The following guys are selected:

Menno Roelofs	Gents 3
Andrea Bracesco	Gents 3
Robert van Dinteren	Gents 3
Rene Tigchelaar	Ladies 1
Sem Geerts	Gents 2
Jelmer Lekkertje	Random kroeg
Sjoerd 'Shanti' Barts	Gents 2
Xavier 'Icanstillplay#Surgerytomorrow' Ikej	Gents 2
Dimitry Brons (C)	Gents 1
Rens van Schouwenburg	Gents 1
Bob Hengeveld	Gents 1
Uncle Dave	Gents 1

As you can see it is a big and strong team.

These strong men will join the battle and will never be broken. Rene is one of the most active players. At the start of a practice he starts with all his energy. However, only after some exercises he stops playing and joins them later at 5-vs-5. Even some of the ladies team say that he is too soft and therefore qualifies himself for a spot in the Cripple Crew! Everybody can learn of the best of the worst. Rens is the one guy. He never played a game this year and is therefore perfect for this team. If you need a benchwarmer please ask for Rens and he will be happily to do it for you. Mr. Brons, is obviously your captain. He is becoming on age, and every little injury in catching up to him. His legs, back, ankles, terrific member for the Cripple Crew. Congratulations Dimitry! And Bob, yeah, your ankle braces are growing by the minute. Just step out and in at practice whatever it suits you. This stubbornness and inability to do full practices qualifies you to join the forces! Sem, the heart-broken man. He isn't crippled, however he had to choose between gf or play games. He ended up with a broken heart and chose for playing Arriba games. Arriba is love. Arriba is life. If you see Sem, please give him a hug. Jelmer is another proud member of the Cripple Crew. It is kind of a sad story how he ended up in this team. As we all know, Jelmer was hanging out with some girls in a random kroeg all night long. He was fixing girls that intensely that he ended up with Hexenschuß! Terrible, terrible accident. Next we have Uncle Dave. Actually, just because he's old. When is he going to finish his Master? Representing the 3rd team: Robert, Menno and Andrea. Actually, just because they're missed some practices. Kind of anti-climax. And last but not least: our very own Shanti! He may be the very backbone of the crew as he is always been crippled. Since he has diabetes he definitely positioned himself in the starting-5 #crippled4life

Fifty shades of Arriba

I still remember like it all happened yesterday, and before I know it, I start reliving this strange event again: It is a shady evening while the wind blows through my hair. It is chilly and hot in a strange kind of way that I cannot explain. I pass some birch trees and I see some strange people with farmers accents in the distance. I don't know them. I don't wanna know them. On my way I pass some rural roadways to campus and I think of the practice where I'm heading to, because I desire to practice. Mainly I crave a hard, a very hard practice today. With some good ball-handling exercises. Though I'm still stiff from last practice, so stiff I am afraid that I will rip some body parts when I bend. On the other hand I always liked to be agonized like that in a way I never understood. Maybe today is the day that we will be racked so hard that we have to crawl back home. After 10 minutes I heard somebody shout: "hey ___A___, going for some hoops?", but I didn't hear it. My focus was somewhere else.

When I entered the court its seemed that I would be disappointed is a sever way. A terrible practice turned out to be a painful truth, but not in the painful way I prefer. It was a practice with passing and I don't like to share. Especially balls, the ball is mine and mine alone. Nevertheless the running gave some satisfaction for I love to cut hard and go back door. Because of the running I start to exhaust a little bit and some body juices drip along my body. But I still was a little bit down, also when I had some great penetrations. Not as good as ___B___ who has a perfect penetration and is besides a great inside player. I covet the thorough and rough stile of my teammate in so many different ways and I cherish every moment we have together.

"Ffjuuuut!!!!" I am brutally awoken out of my daydream after the coach blew the whistle. Really, sometimes I wonder if the coach just doesn't like to blow on whistles. That explains why he sucks so hard, which is indeed a contradiction with my former statement. Never mind... Training is finished, but I am still as always potent as a horse, so I still did some extra elbow shots. After I finished this strange tasting drinks in little glasses I was finished for the day. But the day isn't over and I know I have a shower session in prospect. The locker room was empty and I took out my clothes and entered the shower, star-naked. The warm drops felt like paradise and life was good. Then I heard in my ear: "hey darling, practice just has started" and though I didn't see the shape and size of the person behind me, I was sure that it was __C__. In a reflex I dropped my soap and said: "I don't want to plggggggg...". Before I could reply, my trachea was blocked and I lost my consciousness.

The next thing I can remember was that I was on my bike back home: everything hurt and I couldn't even sit without feeling a extensive pain in my interior. I felt dirty and thought that everybody looked at me. First I thought I imagined the staring, but then I noticed there was still a ball in my mouth. No wonder everybody was looking at me, who does a basketball in his mouth in public? I spit the ball out and the last thing I thought that evening is that my butt would hurt less if I had bought a bike seat to place upon the rusty metal pin on my bike.

Math problem

A New Unsolvable Math Problem

The millennium prize problems used to be 7 math problems which are not solved by anyone till this day and for solving them a 1 million dollar prize is awarded. These math problems are:

- P versus NP
- Hodge conjecture
- Poincare conjecture
- Riemann hypothesis
- Yang-mills existence and mass gap
- Navier-Stokes existence and smoothness
- Birch and Swinnerton-Dyer conjecture

However, recently an 8th problem has been added to this list. Namely the “2 is 1” problem. This mathematical complexity occurred when the 1st team of Arriba became champion with Dimitry Brons as Captain! Dimitry is a well-known for, despite his inexhaustible, eternal effort to end up in first place, still always end up in second place. Before the championship of Arriba, math was quite easy:  $1 = 1$  &  $2 = 2$ , but with Arriba as champion it seems also possible that  $2(D. Brons) = 1(\text{Arriba 1st team})$ . The Arriblad committee has struggled many nights over this complexity, please help us! If someone finds the solution to this problem or some sort of theory, make sure to send it to: milleniumproblems@fakemail.uk

Dear Arriblad ,

I recently finished my master in applied physics and now have much time to spare. Do you think it would be okay to start practicing with the second team and giving practice to the recreationals?

Yourz truly,
Gerbz

Dear Gerben,

Please go finish your stage-report.

Kisses the Arriblad

Dear Ariblad.

I am cherman of the nicest basketball klub of Twente. But I am always sitting on the bensj during. Can you tell the coach that this is hyghli inapropriate to sitt on the bensj for a tjerman?

Gr tjerrman

Dear chairman,

We understand your problems and it seems outrageous. We offer two solutions for you:

1 you put a chair besides the bench and take place over there.

2 you change your title to benchman.

Good luck and see you on the bench/chair!

kind regards,
The Arriblad

Dear Arriblad,

There is one guy in Arriba who always creates these awkward situations.
What can I do about this?

Xx

Dear Ilnowa (Idontreallyknowahowtospellyanamerighta),

Davey is an expert in avoiding awkward situations so maybe you can ask him, luckily you guys are going on a date so this will be a win-win situation (you guys have something to talk about and you learn to avoid these awkward situations).

Awkward kisses from the Arriblad

Dear Arriblad,

Every time I'm with a girl, Klaas and Gerben start calling me. Everyone knows I know my way around the ladies and it is not so hard for me to "get some", but every time my phone rings when we are just started it's a real mood-killer, what can I do?

Xx

Jelmer

-----

Dear Jelmer,

You're handsome but not so bright.
Just turn off your phone.

Dear Arriblad,
During practice people call fouls on me, which are no fouls at all. How can I handle this?

Dear Arno,
Don't complain. You're not a pussy.

Dear Arriblad,

About a year ago my former barber shop closed down. My hair grew a lot and I don't know what to do about it.

Dear Snickerz,
There is a barber shop very close to the sportscentre next to the ING ATM, if this doesn't help enough, feel free to ask Tim to point it out to you. He gets haircuts regularly.

Dear Arriblad,
when I have to watsj my gf volleyball game she is sitting on the bensj. Is it still mendatory too go?

Dear chairman,
Now you know how she feels during your games. Another option is for both to quit sports and warm some benches at home. More cozy and less uncomfortable.

P maybe you can change your title to benchman.

Dear Arriblad,

Few weeks ago there was a gala. But my date didn't give a lot of attention to me? I really like my date but I don't know if this is mutual. How can I find out if there is something more than only being friends?

Anonymous

Dear Anonymous,

Congratulations. You are one of the many, many Arribanen who had this issue. And thus you are not alone in loneliness. We have to be honest to you. We don't know why your date didn't pay any attention to you. But we can imagine dozens of scenarios why you weren't approached: Maybe you gave this person cookies, maybe you received cookies yourself, even when you gave a f@ck1ng bouquet of flowers. Maybe your date was just shy, or puking in an alley or you were puking yourself. We just don't know and we will never know. It could be wise to start with a minor conversation and who knows something good comes out of it. You can start easy with: "hey, love your shoes" or "Everything fine behind the zipper?" Going straight for the bullseye can also be appreciated. A direct shot in the rose is just saying "Wanna fuck?", she can say no but also yes. It's a 50% chance! The key is just try something and show some interest in the other person. In the end the one who perseveres, is the one who wins. Even cookies can be turned into a creampie if you try long enough! But remember to arrange your funeral when it comes this far! #RIPinpiesGerben

Kind regards,
